Renewal of Vows--Whether you have been married for five or fifty years, or for any length of time, if you would like to renew your wedding vows in the context of the worship service, please contact Rev. McConnell at the church office. First Presbyterian had its first worship service wedding vow renewal on Valentine's Day of this year with John and Shirley Shimp renewing their vows to one another after sixty-one years of marriage. This brief ceremony renews the strength of commitment the couple has for one another, reminds everyone in the congregation of the importance of the institution of marriage, and can be a good occasion for a family celebration.

Zumba is back with a certified instructor on Mondays only from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in Presby Place for the summer months. You may contact Tamera Garibay for more information at 236-0955. Come and get your Zumba on!

Summer Youth Choir continues to meet weekly throughout the summer to learn contemporary Christian worship songs and songs from Broadway musicals. Rehearsals are 4:00 p.m. on Thursdays. Contact Pastor Kati for more information.

Order of Worship 9:15 a.m.

The Holy Spirit meets with us during the act of creation, whether it is in music, spoken word or a brush on a canvas. *CALL TO WORSHIP & PRAYER OF CONFESSION Rev. R.C. McConnell

Minister: Come, Children of God.

Disciples: We come to honor God, our Creator, to offer our gifts and to look for God's new acts of creation in our midst.

Minister: Come, Followers of Jesus.

Disciples: We come to give thanks for His sacrifice. We come to learn how to better follow Christ's ways. We come to meet Jesus in our neighbors.

Minister: Come, Vessels for the Holy Spirit.

Disciples: We come with open hearts and minds. We come with willing hands and feet. God of grace and mercy, forgive us for the gifts we have withheld. Forgive us for the gifts we have squandered. We confess to you the ways that we have followed after anger in place of love, chasing jealousy in place of compassion, seeking instant gratification rather than resting on your peace, patience and gentleness. Instill within us a deep sense of gratitude, that we might rely on the fruits of your spirit.

(Time for silent confession)

Minister: We lift up our confessions.

Disciples: Lord, have mercy on Your children, Amen.
