Minister: The Psalmist cries out, “How lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord of Heaven’s Armies. I long to enter the courts of the Lord.

People: We bring our whole beings, bodies and souls to worship and shout joyfully to the living God.

Minister: Let us first lay down our burdens and receive the grace of the Lord.

All: O Lord, our God, we have come to dwell in the shelter of Your wings, and yet we yearn to have You just as we want You. We come to Your word yearning to hear what we know and prove ourselves in the right. We want to control our lives and we even want to control You. Come and transform our hearts, come and open our eyes to see the many changes around us, and open our hands, that instead of grasping harder to the things we cannot change, we might grasp onto Your love and hold on for the wild ride. We are well on our way to reaching our goal of $167,000.00 for the 2016 Capital Repair Fund, with over 65 households pledging support. Work has begun on repairing and painting the window casings, and work will begin on a new roof in November. If most members and friends of the congregation contribute to these needed repairs, including the windows, roof, and HVAC systems, we will achieve the necessary improvements to our infrastructure. Pledge cards and return envelopes are provided in today's bulletin. You can place your card and/or contribution in today's offering plate, or return to the church office. Thank you.

Special Music next week will feature the Youth Choir.
