GATHERING and GREETING

(Moment for silent reflection)

CALL to WORSHIP

HYMN "All Who Love and Serve Your City"

PRAYER of CONFESSION and FORGIVENESS

God of abundant goodness, we confess that we want your grace for ourselves and often to the exclusion of our neighbor. We judge others while ignoring our own faults. We let jealousy overtake us. We are petty even in the presence of your generosity. Forgive us, we pray. And just as we have received mercy in Jesus Christ, make us more merciful toward one another. For we ask this in Christ's name. Amen.

SHARING of the PEACE

The peace of the Lord, Jesus Christ, be with you all!

And also with you!

SCRIPTURE READINGS Jonah 3:10-4:11

Matthew 20:1-16

Announcements

We would like to extend a big THANK YOU to all of the Outstanding Work all of the Volunteers have provided this past week and will continue to provide this coming week for the FPC Organ Pipe Cleaning Project. Also, to the Membership Committee & the Deacons for providing lunches to the work crew and volunteers for the 2 weeks of Pipe Organ Cleaning Project. Huge Shout Out to Radina's for providing the complimentary coffee each morning during this project.

ECM needs your plastic containers! Please bring your used(cleaned) or new plastic storage containers (with lids attached and big enough to fit a meal) to one of our drop of locations. With them, we can distribute "Real Food Lunch" for fresh meals at home for KSU students! Tupperware drop-off locations: ECM at 904 Sunset Ave. DROP OFF TUB BY THE PARKING LOT DOOR BETWEEN 10AM-10PM, MONDAY-FRIDAY

Call To Service

Please consider joining other BRIDGE BUILDERS in our congregation, who are working to establish a strong link between our church home and the shut-in members still wanting a connection to their church family. The qualifications are simple…a caring heart and a few minutes in your schedule to make a visit or a call to someone in need of a "special friend." Each BRIDGE BUILDER will be assigned to one "special friend" and the connection between you is of your own design. If you want to be a part of this very special mission within our own congregation, please email our church office at therese@firstpresmanhattan.com or call the office at 785-537-0518.

Community Meals NEEDS your help! Community Meals currently serves to-go meals on Tuesday evenings at 6:00 p.m. which includes a to-go breakfast as well. We are in need of volunteers who are willing to help with bringing food and/or serving the food. For more information, please contact Claudia Voos at cvoos@burnettauto.com or Missy Cox at mjc_2188@hotmail.com

Blessing Box...Did you know that some members of our congregation join with the members of First Congregational Church to place non-perishable food and hygiene items in the BLESSING BOX at Poyntz Avenue and Juliette Street! Contributions now and throughout the year can be designated for THE BLESSING BOX and dropped off at the church office. We have a BLESSING CUPBOARD where items are stored until placed in THE BLESSING BOX as they are needed. Your generosity is always appreciated.

Prayer Corner

Please keep the Parker family in your prayers. Marilyn fell yesterday resulting in needing stitches in her head and hand/wrist injuries. She will be following up with an orthopedic surgeon. She is 97 years of age and lives with Dave and Nancy. In addition, Bob (Dave's younger brother) has a mass in his head near an optic nerve. Dave is taking him to KU Medical Center Monday for evaluation.

If you would like to be included in the prayer corner of the weekly email, please contact Therese Szatkowski, Communications Coordinator, therese@firstpresmanhattan.com; 785-537-0518.

All Who Love and Serve Your City 351

This 20th-century text greatly enriches the neglected genre of urban hymns. The second stanza quotes John 9:4, the third stanza refers to Jesus weeping over Jerusalem (Matthew 23:37/Luke 13:34), and the final line cites the name given to Israel's future holy city (Ezekiel 48:35).

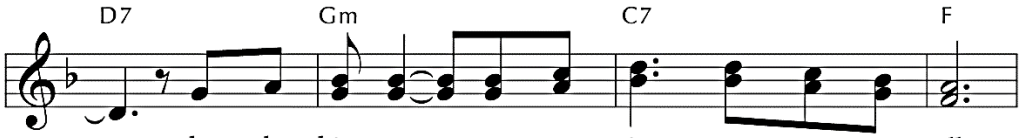
3 Cuan - do cre - ce la a - le - grí - a y nos i - nun - da,
4 Cuan - do a - bun - da el bien y lle - na los ho - ga - res,



when the thirst - y wa - ter give un - to us all,
when they hope though e - ven hope seems hope - less - ness,
when our lips can speak no words oth - er than true,
when we learn how to make peace in - stead of war,

cuan - do un hom - bre pa - sa sed y a - gua nos da, cuan - do es - pe - ra y no se can - sa de es - pe - rar, cuan - do di - cen nues - tros la - bios la ver - dad, cuan - do un hom - bre don - de hay gue - rra po - ne paz, when the crip - pled in their weak - ness strength - en oth - ers, when we love though hate at times seems all a - round us, when we know that love for sim - ple things is bet - ter,

when each strang - er that we meet is called a neigh - bor, cuan - do el dé - bil a su her - ma - no for - ta - le - ce, cuan - do a - ma - mos, aun - que el o - dio nos ro - dé - e, cuan - do a - ma - mos el sen - tir de los sen - ci - llos, cuan - do "her - ma - no" le lla - ma - mos al ex - tra - ño,

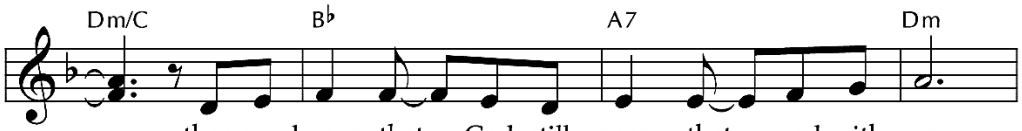
Refrain / Estribillo



then we know that God still goes that road with us,

This text on stewardship was one of about 450 submissions in a search for such hymns conducted by the Hymn Society of America in 1961. These words are well grounded by their musical setting, an early American shape note tune named for a Baptist church in Harris County, Georgia.
