Call to Worship

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."
Surely he will save you
from the fowler's snare
and from the deadly pestilence.
He will cover you with his feathers,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
You will not fear the terror of night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.
Psalm 91:2-6

Hymn

All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, source of all life, Lord of mercy and grace, hear our prayer.
We come before you in need of healing:
The healing of our bodies and souls,
The healing of our relationships,
The healing of our pride, fear, anxiety, and apathy.
We know that with you, nothing is impossible.
Not even the restoration of the whole world.
We pray that we would find our refuge in you,
That we would enjoy peace and comfort in your presence.
Shelter us from the things that attempt to pull us away from you and your will for us. Set us free to live as Christ calls us to. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Heavenly Father,

We remember Jesus' words from the Gospel of John, "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." During this time when we are told to 'shelter in place' may we remember our ultimate need to find our shelter in you.

We ask that you would fill us with your Holy Spirit, equip us with the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, and the shield of faith to protect us from attacks on our hearts and minds. Help us to stand strong, not be afraid, and to find peace, rest, and the abundant life Jesus promised. We pray these things in the powerful name of your son Jesus Christ as we join together in the prayer he taught us to pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. AMEN.

Hymn

Take My Life

Benediction

May we go now and trust in the Lord as our shield and fortress. May we rely on him to be our shelter. In Jesus name. Amen.

Announcements

Jeff Schober is a member of our church, along with his wife Carmen and daughters Vivian and newborn Sofia. He graduated from K-State in 2012 with his Masters of Architecture. Following graduation, he worked as a campus minister at K-State for 3 years and has worked 5 years in his current position with Gallagher helping companies offer high quality and affordable employee benefits. Jeff learned to preach/minister through his campus ministry experience and by listening to hundreds of sermons from a wide variety of preachers. He has also offered Bible study classes in our church. Please welcome Jeff, and listen to the Word of God through his voice.

The beautiful bouquet on the communion table this morning was given by Lee and Jackie Hartman Borck in honor of their mothers.

Every Wednesday, we are posting videos for your children to watch as a "virtual Sunday school" experience. If you type in Youtube, "Ms. Davidson's Sunday school" it should pop right up! There are already 5 posted, but there will be a new one posted every Wednesday. Tune in to get the Sunday school experience right in your own homes!

This 18th-century text celebrating the sovereignty of Christ has been through several expansions and contractions before reaching its present form. It is set here to the oldest American hymn tune in continuous use since first published in 1793, which was written for it.

Take My Life

1 Take my life and let it be con - se - crat - ed, Lord, to thee;
 2 Take my hands and let them move at the im - pulse of thy love;
 3 Take my voice and let me sing al - ways, on - ly, for my King;
 4 Take my sil - ver and my gold; not a mite would I with - hold;

take my mo - ments and my days; let them flow in take my feet and let them be swift and beau - ti - take my lips and let them be filled with mes - sa - take my in - tel - lect and use ev - ery power as cease - less praise; let them flow in cease - less praise.

 ful for thee, swift and beau - ti - ful for thee.
 ges from thee, filled with mes - sa - ges from thee.
 thou shalt choose, ev - ery power as thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will and make it thine;
 it shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart, it is thine own;
 it shall be thy royal throne,
 it shall be thy royal throne.

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
 at thy feet its treasure store;
 take myself and I will be
 ever, only, all for thee,
 ever, only, all for thee.

This hymn of consecration radiates from the repeated word "take," resulting in a remarkably full survey of a person's attributes and possessions and giving weight to the "all" at the end. The composer of the tune was influential in the renewal of Reformed hymnody in French.
