Call to Worship

I will remember the deeds of the Lord;
yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.
I will consider all your works
and meditate on all your mighty deeds.”
Your ways, God, are holy.
What god is as great as our God?
You are the God who performs miracles;
you display your power among the peoples.
With your mighty arm you redeemed your people,
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.
Psalm 77:11-15

Prayer of Confession

Holy and Merciful God,
We confess to you our forgetfulness.
We confront today our waywardness.
We accept Lord that we are sinful.
To turn to our past is to recall both your great acts of love and kindness as well as many moments where we have failed you.
Even still, your love remains.
And so in humility and brokenness we pray
We ask you to forgive.
We ask Lord that you would heal.
Redeem us from our slavery to ourselves and our own way.
Crown us again with your acceptance and care.
Satisfy the real thirst of our soul.
Renew us with the strength that only you can give.
Reveal yourself to us again as a God of grace.
Rich in mercy, patient with our wandering.
As far as the east is from the west,
remove our sin from us.
Today, together, as the body of Christ, we declare our thankfulness to you.
In the holy and loving name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Today, we come before you in remembrance and gratitude.

We remember the men and women of our military who have sacrificed their lives for our freedom.

We thank you for their bravery.

We are blessed by the many freedoms that we enjoy in this country and for those we give you thanks.

Today, we also remember the One who sacrificed His life for our eternal freedom.

We give thanks to you for Jesus, who fought the ultimate battle and paid the ultimate price for us.

We worship you for the victory that was declared through Jesus' resurrection and we thank you for the power of the Holy Spirit to help us follow Him.

Help us to not take for granted your mighty works or the works that you have done through brave men and women.

Help us to rely on your Holy Spirit, and to fight bravely in the battle of offering sacrificial love to others for their joy and for your glory.

We pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ as we join together in the prayer he taught us to pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Hymn

Come, Christians, Join to Sing

Benediction

Go now, and may the words of Jesus burn within us as they did for the disciples on the Emmaus road. May we respond with worship and actions that honor Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.
